6 0 NATIONWIDE and your regional news magazine.

6 55 WOODHOUSE ROADSHOW: Peterborough. Holding court at the Steam and Country Fair at the East of England Showground, Mrs W. gives advice to a young gymkhana competitor, and borrows an exhibit to cure a dog with a thing about car doors.

7 30 TO THE MANOR BORN. Penelope Keith, Peter Bowles as distressed gentlewoman and nouveau riche newcomer in the re-run Grantleigh saga.

8 0 FAME: The Crazies. End of term for the performing arts students and end of the series, too, with Doris and Montgomery being totally honest, and everyone else being terribly on edge.

8 45 POINTS OF VIEW. Barry Took passes on more home thoughts on broadcasting.

9 0 NEWS; weather.

9 25 WHICKER'S WORLD: 4. If You Look Absolutely Marvellous Who Needs A Gorgeous Character? An all-woman world this week, as Whicker recalls some of his female interviewees of the sixties, from Geisha girls to the Duchess of Alba, who had 68 titles, to the backcombed glamour girls of the beauty queen circus.

10 5 SPORTSNIGHT. On the eve of the opening ceremony in Brisbane, Desmond Lynam introduces a preview of the ten days of action coming up in the Commonwealth Games. Plus more coverage of the Ice International at Richmond, where the Ice Dance and the Ladies contest are the featured events

6 15 ONE MAN'S YACHT: Iain Cuthbertson's Motor Sailer, Sea Laughter. Donny Macleod joins her for a cruise round the West coast of Scotland, in another Top Sailing re-run

6 40 COLLECTING NOW: CARE AND REPAIR. 3 Metals John Fitzmaurice Mills with more expert advice, covering everything from antique guns to gold inlay.

7 0 SCHOOLS PROM. Ray Moore visits Aberdeen Music Centre to meet more of the young musicians who took part in last year's event, highlights of which can be seen next week

7 30 NEWS with sub-titles, weather.

7 35 DE BONO'S THINKING COURSE. 4: Lateral Thinking And Creativity. More brain-stretching exercises from Dr Edward de Bono, explaining his best known brainwave.

8 0 TIMEWATCH. Television's first history magazine is an intriguing concept; so is the idea of having it presented, not by a trendy academic, but by one of our most competent current affairs journalists. Newsnight's John Tusa aims in it to re-examine famous past events that have a new relevance today, and to explore new areas of historical interest. The first edition includes an interview with the Windsors' lawyer, Maitre Suzanne Blum, on the eve of publication of the authorised biography; newly-declassified film of Britain's first atomic test; and a review of closure-threatened Chatham Dockyard's contribution to naval history.

9 0 M.A.S.H.: No Sweat. Alan Alda leads the manic medics on the Korean War front.

9 25 SMILEY'S PEOPLE: 2. Another chance to catch Monday's second atmospheric episode in the new Le Carre thriller, with Alec Guinness as the intelligence Grandmaster.

10 25 JACK HIGH. Fourth of the programmes culled from last June's Masters Bowls Tournament at Worthing.

10 55 NEWSNIGHT, with news, analysis, interviews, weather, sport, and another Labour Conference report. 11 55 Close.
